Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

We invite you to come down the center aisle, receive the bread in your open hands as a symbol that the grace we receive at the table is not something we take for ourselves but is freely offered to us. After receiving the bread, you may either dip your bread in the communal cup or partake of an individual cup. Gluten-free bread is available, simply ask your server.

GATHERING

CALL TO WORSHIP* (by Ruth Duck)
As a shepherd seeks a lost sheep,
So God seeks and saves those that feel lost.
Like a woman who searches for a lost coin until it is found,
So God rejoices over one soul restored to wholeness.
As a father receives a returning wayward son,
So God welcomes us, and lets the past be the past.
Therefore let us praise God in thanksgiving that we are received.
Let us receive and welcome and rejoice over one another
In the name of Jesus Christ. Alleluia!

Thank you for the light which wakes us morning by morning, And for that greater light which shines in Jesus Christ. O God, how great you are! On the first day of the week you raised Jesus from the dead. Raise us with Christ to new faith and life. O God, how great you are! Again on the first day of the week You sent your Spirit on your disciples. Do not deprive us of your Spirit, But renew us through your Spirit day by day. Christ is risen! Christ is risen indeed! For Everyone Born

For everyone born, a place at the table
for everyone born, clean water and bread.
a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, a star overhead.

Chorus:
And God will delight
when we are creators of justice
and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight
when we are creators of justice,
justice and joy.

For all who share life, a place at the table,
revising the roles, deciding the share,
with wisdom and grace, dividing the power,
for all who share life, a system that’s fair.

Chorus

For those we neglect, a place at the table,
a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled,
for those we neglect, the right to belong.

Chorus

For those who share love, a place at the table,
a covenant shared, a welcoming space,
a rainbow of race and gender and color,
for those who share love, the chalice of grace.

Chorus

For everyone born, a place at the table,
to live without fear, and simply be,
to work, to speak out, to witness and worship,
for everyone born, the right to be free.

Good Shepherd, We Are Not Alone

Good Shepherd, we are not alone,
For you protect and love your own.
And we, responding, know your voice;
We hear you calling and rejoice.

Another shepherd might turn back
And flee at danger's first attack;
But you laid down your very life —
A loving shepherd's sacrifice.

A thief may well destroy and steal,
But you, Good Shepherd, save and heal.
You lead your sheep to pasture land,
To life abundant, by your hand.

You gather sheep from far and wide —
From folds we know and from outside.
One flock, one Shepherd, there will be —
A loving, blest community.

Christ Still Rises

Christ still rises when fear grips our city,
when death takes no pity,
when much is unknown.
Christ still rises when friends are divided,
when joy still feels misguided,
when we are alone.
Christ still rises when churches are shuttered,
when praises are muttered,
when prayers go unsaid.
Christ still rises when when peace has all faded,
when we are most jaded,
when faith turns to dread,
when faith turns to dread.

Christ still rises when we give to neighbors,
when we share our labors,
when strangers belong.
Christ still rises when we come together,
when love is our tether,
when hope is our song.
Christ still rises when grieving is ended,
when bodies are mended,
when beauty heals pain.
Christ still rises when fear has retreated,
when death is defeated
and joy will remain,
and joy will remain.
